Credit Card Fraud

Manchester Police are looking for the public's help in identifying the suspect pictured below in connection with the fraudulent use of a bank card.

Earlier this month, the victim accidentally left her debit card at the ATM located at Triangle Credit Union on Elm Street. Another customer picked it up and placed it on the exterior window sill of the bank. This person did not inform the bank, and the wind ended up blowing the card into the parking lot. The suspect picked it up off the ground then proceeded to use the card at several locations.

Anyone with information on this case is asked to call Detective James Pittman at 603-792-5551. You can also call the Manchester Crimeline at 603-624-4040.
